Albert Neumeyer, adjunct professor of Music at Lehigh University and Muhlenberg College, formerly taught instrumental music in the East Penn School District, Emmaus, Pa. and in Dundee, N.Y. A graduate of Mansfield University in Mansfield, Pa. and Trenton State College, Trenton, N. J., Mr. Neumeyer holds a B.S. in Education and the masters in Conducting respectively. He has studied conducting with Stanley Austin of the New York and Trenton Philharmonic, voice with Joyce Bryant of New York and theater with Jack Wilcox of Mansfield University. Al and his wife, Shirlee, are owners of the Inn of the Falcon, a restaurant in Bethlehem, Pa.

Paul Salerni is Professor of Music at Lehigh where he teaches composition, theory, and directs the Lehigh University Very Modern Ensemble. He received a Ph.D. in musical composition from Harvard University where he studied with Earl Kim. He has had numerous commissions and fellowships, and his pieces have been heard around the world mostly as a result of his concertizing with wonton ravioli and the dairy queen.

The response to the call issued at the March concert for donations for a Kenton Lerch Scholarship Prize were very gratifying. If you were not present or did not yet send in a contribution but would like to do so, please make your check payable to Lehigh University Music Department with the notation "Lerch Scholarship" and mail it to the Music Department, Lehigh University, Zoellner Arts Center, 420 E. Packer Ave., Bethlehem, PA 18015. We will keep you informed about the progress of the fund and the formation of a committee to establish the guidelines for its use.
